5.82.020 Purpose.

It is the purpose of this ordinance to regulate sexually oriented businesses in order to promote the health, safety, morals, and general welfare of the citizens of the city, and to establish reasonable and uniform regulations to prevent the deleterious secondary effects of sexually oriented businesses within the city. The provisions of this ordinance have neither the purpose nor effect of imposing a limitation or restriction on the content or reasonable access to any communicative materials, including sexually oriented materials. Similarly, it is not the intent nor effect of this ordinance to restrict or deny access by adults to sexually oriented materials protected by the First Amendment, or to deny access by the distributors and exhibitors of sexually oriented entertainment to their intended market. Neither is it the intent nor effect of this ordinance to condone or legitimize the distribution of obscene material.

A licensee's knowing or intentional refusal to permit such an inspection shall constitute a violation of this chapter.

B. Inspections authorized by this section do not apply to areas of an adult motel which are currently being rented by a customer for use as a permanent or temporary habitation.

5.82.110 Expiration of License.

Each license shall remain valid for the term described in section 5.06.110 unless otherwise suspended or revoked. Such license may be renewed only by making application as provided in section 5.82.070 and paying the fee as provided in section 5.82.090.

5.82.120 Suspension.

The city shall issue a notice of intent to suspend a sexually oriented business license if it is determined that the sexually oriented business licensee has knowingly violated this chapter or has knowingly allowed an employee to violate this chapter. B. The city shall issue a notice of intent to revoke a sexually oriented business license or, in the case of an employee, a sexually oriented business employee license, if the hearing officer determines by a preponderance of evidence that:

1. The licensee has knowingly given false or misleading information in the application or renewal for the license.

2. The sexually oriented business licensee has knowingly allowed possession, use, or sale of controlled substances on the premises, or in the case of an employee, the sexually oriented business employee licensee has knowingly engaged in the possession, use, or sale of controlled substances on the premises. in any specified sexual activity in or on any licensed premises.

C. The fact that any relevant conviction is being appealed shall have no effect on the revocation of the license.

D. For the purposes of this chapter, if an act by any employee constitutes grounds for revocation of that employee's license and the hearing officer determines by a preponderance of evidence that an officer, director, or general partner, or an employee who managed, supervised, or controlled the operation of the business, knowingly allowed such act to occur on the premises, then the hearing officer may review the employee's license.

E. When, after the notice and hearing procedure described in section 5.82.140, the hearing officer revokes a license, the revocation shall continue for one (1) year and the licensee shall not be issued a sexually oriented business license or sexually oriented business employee license for a period of one (1) year from the date revocation becomes effective, provided that, if the conditions of section 5.82.140(B) have been satisfied, a provisional license will be granted pursuant to that section. If, subsequent to a revocation based solely on subsection (B)(1) of this section, the hearing officer finds that the basis for the revocation has been corrected or abated, the applicant shall be granted a license if at least ninety (90) days have elapsed since the date the revocation became effective. If the license was revoked under subsections (B)(2), (B)(3), (B)(4), (B)(5), or (B)(6) of this section, an applicant may not be granted another sexually oriented business license or sexually oriented business employee license until at least one (1) year has elapsed.

5.82.140 Hearing--Denial, revocation, and suspension--Appeal.

A. If the city determines that facts exist for denial, suspension, or revocation of a license under this chapter, the city shall notify the applicant or licensee (respondent) in writing of the city's intent to deny, suspend or revoke such license, including the grounds therefore, by personal delivery, or by certified mail.

1. The notification shall be directed to the most current business address or other mailing address on file with the city for the respondent. Within twenty (20) days of receipt of such notice, the respondent may provide to the city a written response that shall include a statement of reasons why the respondent believes the license should not be denied, suspended, or revoked.

2. Within five (5) days of the receipt of respondent's written response, the city shall notify respondent in writing of the hearing date on respondent's denial, suspension, or revocation proceeding. At such hearing, the hearing officer shall conduct a hearing at which respondent shall have the opportunity present all of respondent's arguments and to be represented by counsel, present evidence and witnesses on his or her behalf, and cross-examine any of the city's witnesses. The hearing officer shall issue a written opinion within five (5) days after the hearing.

3. If a written response from respondent is not received by the city within the time stated in section (A)(1) above, or if after a hearing, the hearing officer concludes that grounds exist for denial, suspension, or revocation of the license, then such denial, suspension, or revocation shall become final five (5) days after the hearing officer sends, by certified mail, written notice to the respondent that the license has been denied, suspended, or revoked. Such notice shall include a statement advising the respondent of the right to appeal such decision to a court of competent jurisdiction. If the hearing officer finds that no grounds exist for denial, suspension, or revocation of the license, then within five (5) days after the hearing, the hearing officer shall immediately withdraw the intent to deny, suspend, or revoke the license and shall notify the respondent in writing by certified mail of such action. If the hearing relates to a denial of a license, the hearing officer shall contemporaneously order that the license be issued.
